

IN THIS EUROPEAN NIGHT

He and his Mangalitsa pork chops
The collection of stamps was waiting
All the girls gone wild
“Look at all these stamps!”

Haha, it's just a dominion table
With his sassy colour scheme
He and his constant crystal lighting
She takes place with her psychedelic diamonds
It's time for a denim escape!

It's just soft leather
They are discussing Victorian information
Yeah ... dismissing information ...
She works as an occupation designer
Well, I guess, it's time for some conventional tea!

The minute she came into the room!
She was the talented December girl
You and your totally absurd house!
They were eating chilli rice crackers
And this totally absurd club sandwich.

You want some pretzels?
Some afternoon sign says: “It's advertising time”
With his uncompromising price
And his Nouveau Matique placements
There are Nouveau Matique splitters all around
It's advertising time!

Chorus

A descending progress
In this European night
