

Life Vest

There's lighthouses and harbours
And there is custom love
There's nothing but the iron
And the wire around your heart.

Where is all the good stuff
And where is all the real?
Where are all the stores?
To provide you with what you need?

Where are all the parties
To invite you to stay long?
Where are all the dark nights
With all the hidden smiles?

There are many drinks to share
Different ones with different colours
There are many songs to hear
To sing and to discuss.

Where is all the loving?
Where has it gone?
Where is all the happiness
The fire and the storm?

There are many clouds around
Fog instead of sun
There are many waves to break
Ships that won't slow down.

Chorus

Throw me a life vest,
So I can jump into that river
To find maybe the things that I have lost
Cause I can't see them anywhere
But I've been looking all around
Lend me a life vest or a hand.
